SO WHERE IS THE BEST CLIMATE FOR BUSINESS?

America's Best Business Climates will be the main topic of discussion when Site Selection magazine unveils its annual rankings.

Site Selection provides the most comprehensive look at State Business Climates of any publication in the corporate real estate field. Our coverage will include the results of our 2013 Site Selection Business Climate Survey, essays on Major Legislative Activity and Incentives Policy, and a Detailed Comparison of State Financial Assistance and Tax Incentives Programs.

Medical Devices and Equipment

Medical device manufacturing clusters are firmly entrenched in locations worldwide that can offer the right combination of these ingredients: R&D talent, availability of capital, a business climate conducive to entrepreneurship, first-rate logistics and a manufacturing base, among other attributes. Our report will identify the areas most likely to attract new investment in this key sector in 2014.
