So where is the best climate for business in the US?

America's Best Business Climates will be the main topic of discussion when Site Selection magazine unveils its annual rankings.

Site Selection provides the most comprehensive look at State Business Climates of any publication in the corporate real estate field. Our coverage will include the results of our 2015 Site Selection Business

Climate Survey, essays on Major Legislative Activity and Incentives Policy, and a Detailed Comparison of State Financial Assistance and Tax Incentives Programs.

FREE TRADE ZONES

Just in time for the annual World Free Zone Convention, Site Selection publishes an in-depth article along with its Annual Directory of Ports and Free Trade Zones.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING SECTIONS: Top Business Park Locations, Ports & Free Trade Zones, University Alliances, Downtown Revitalization

Medical Devices and Equipment

Medical device manufacturing clusters are firmly entrenched in locations worldwide that can offer the right combination of these ingredients: R&D talent, availability of capital, a business climate conducive to entrepreneurship, first-rate logistics and a manufacturing base, among other attributes. Our report will identify the areas most likely to attract new investment in this key sector in 2016.

Global Automotive

Site Selection readers have invested $45.1 billion in 432 new automotive projects in the past 12 months alone. We'll explore the regions leading the charge on this ever-important industry.

Aerospace Industry

Advances in air transportation and space exploration are keeping airport and spaceport locations on the receiving end of a steady stream of new investments and facility expansions. Our report will look at the criteria at work in aerospace facility location decisions and profile representative projects to illustrate those criteria's import.
